DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

CONGRESSIONAL.
For Congressman—District—
J. S. Little, of Sebastian.

Editorial.

This was an off year for independents in politics.

Miss Winnie Davis is very ill at Narragansett Pier, R. I.

Judge Thomas H. Cooley, of Michigan, died on last Monday.

Don't neglect to sow a few acres in wheat this fall. It will pay you well.

The First Arkansas Volunteers are back at Little Rock, and will soon be mustered out of service.

Aspiring politicians in Arkansas will learn, in time, the closer they stick to Democracy the better it will be for them.

The people of Texarkana had a thirty hours rain, beginning on last Monday. The streets, in places, were overflowed and $7,000 or 8,000 damages were done.

The straight Democratic ticket won in Jefferson county without much trouble. This has been a cold year for independents as well as populists and republicans.

There is one more election to come off this fall—the Congressional election—which will be on the first Tuesday in November. Let the Democrats keep this date in mind, and turn out on that day and give Hon. J. S. Little a big vote.

Owing to apathy on the part of Democrats, Drew county will only have 4 votes in the next State convention, if the present basis is maintained. The representation of most other counties are also cut down in about the same ratio.

Now, that the election is over and there is not a great deal of cause for general excitement, it might be a capital idea for our farmers to turn their attention to grain-sowing. Turf oats and winter wheat should be sowed, now, without stint. These are crops that will pay any farmer better than cotton.

The gold-bugs are very anxious to impress the country with the view that there is an abundance of money in circulation; but it is difficult to make the people believe such stuff when they are unable to see much cash. If there was a great deal of money floating around loose, cotton would not be a drug on the market at 4½ cents per pound.

THE MILL.

The new flouring mill of the Conway Milling Company has started up. The test run was made on Tuesday and was entirely satisfactory to the owners. The directors are persistent in their claims that it is one of the finest mills in the United States. The entire lot of machinery runs as smoothly as a sewing machine. Aside from a little trouble with the pump everything has been running nicely. Only a day force is being worked now, but in a short time the mill will run night and day. The company is buying all the local wheat that comes in and is shipping in from the North. The local wheat is good and brings 65 cents per bushel. Farmers can sell their wheat and buy flour or can exchange their wheat for flour, bran, etc.—Conway Democrat.

The town of Conway is not as large a place as Monticello, and certainly does not possess any peculiar mill advantages over this place. If a flouring mill is a good investment for Conway, one would be a paying thing in Monticello. If a few thousand dollars of the surplus capital of our town were put into a first-class mill plant it would not only be profitable to the investors, but would be worth a great deal to the surrounding country. Hundreds of our farmers would raise wheat if they could get it ground into flour.

We believe a stock company could be organized for the purpose of putting in a mill at Monticello if only the proper effort was made.

OFFICIAL VOTE.

The Drew County Election Commissioners met Friday of last week and found the official vote to be as follows:

IGNORANCE NO EXCUSE.

Driven to the last ditch in defense of the terrible condition of affairs which prevails in our fever-stricken and starving army, Secretary Alger and other interested parties are now hurrying into print with the statement that the sufferings of our army in this war are no greater than that of the troops in the late rebellion. They declare that in the late unpleasantness the soldiers were compelled to eat the same kind of food and often suffered for lack of that, and

DR. BELL'S Pine-Tar-Honey

Nature's most natural remedy, improved by science to a Pleasant, Permanent, Positive Cure for coughs, colds and all inflamed surfaces of the Lungs and Bronchial Tubes.

The sore, weary cough-worn Lungs are exhilarated; the mucus-bearing mucus is cut out; the cause of that tickling is removed, and the inflamed membranes are healed and soothed so that there is no inclination to cough.

SOLD BY ALL GOOD DRUGGISTS
Bottles Only. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 Sizes
BE SURE YOU GET
Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey

I AM 88 YEARS OLD, and never used any remedy until I got Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It gives quick and permanent relief to my colds and coughs and cures. It makes me feel strong.—Mrs. M. A. McCall, Putnam, Ky.

that there was often a similar dearth of supplies, hospital equipment, etc. When he visited the hospitals at Montauk Point, Secretary Alger found the typhoid patients lying on the ground in their own filth, and coolly announced that he had "frequently slept on the ground during the rebellion. In consequence you cannot get within a mile of the army tent to write a letter, and I am writing this on a board in the rear end of a sawmill. I saw some of the applications after they were written out, and they were very remarkable documents. One fellow said that he did not care to go to Cuba to ride around on a slop wagon for two years just to please Uncle Sam, but most of them were to the effect that the applicants were the sole support of aged parents."

"I heard a physician remark the other day that the greatest trouble with the boys in the hospitals was that they needed mothers and homes. 'My position, as defined by one of my comrades, is: If the government actually requires my invaluable services in Cuba, I will go, I will further, go willingly, cheerfully and do my best while there. I wish, however, to inform the government that if there are other men who wish to remain for this service I have no objection, but will step down and out.'

No department of modern military science has made greater strides during the last thirty years than the medical service. Methods which were considered the most improved in 1865, are now looked upon as little less than barbarous by civilized nations. If Secretary Alger and his friends have no better 'excuse' than this to offer, they are, perhaps, to be pitied; but they will none the less be compelled to pay the whole penalty for their hideous blunders. Ignorance is no excuse for manslaughter.

UNDER GEN. LEE.

Ed. Scull, of Pine Bluff, a private in Co. L, 1st Tex., writes from Jacksonville to the Press-E, as follows: "Here we have an ideal camping-ground, situated on the banks of the St. John's river. Large oak trees, covered with white moss, furnish us with grateful shade, while the ground is high and dry. We have an abundance of pure water, furnished by means of pipes from an artesian well in the city. The First and Second Texas, the First and Second Louisiana, and the First and Second Alabama are camped near each other; in fact, we have been together ever since we left Mobile. It is just beginning to dawn upon some of the boys that it was much easier to get into the army than it is to get out. For the past few days you can hear nothing but talk about being mustered out. Yesterday it was noised about the camp that all you had to do to get out was to ask for a discharge. In consequence you cannot get within a mile of the army tent to write a letter, and I am writing this on a board in the rear end of a sawmill. I saw some of the applications after they were written out, and they were very remarkable documents. One fellow said that he did not care to go to Cuba to ride around on a slop wagon for two years just to please Uncle Sam, but most of them were to the effect that the applicants were the sole support of aged parents."

"I heard a physician remark the other day that the greatest trouble with the boys in the hospitals was that they needed mothers and homes. 'My position, as defined by one of my comrades, is: If the government actually requires my invaluable services in Cuba, I will go, I will further, go willingly, cheerfully and do my best while there. I wish, however, to inform the government that if there are other men who wish to remain for this service I have no objection, but will step down and out.'

ARKANSAS AND FREE SILVER.

The New York Commercial Advertiser rises to remark: "Even in Arkansas, the home of Chairman Jones, of the Democratic national committee, free silver is plainly on the wane. This state in 1896 gave Bryan a plurality of 55,000 and yesterday, on a free silver platform, the Democrats were able to obtain a plurality of only 15,000. Of course the total vote was light, but where people are intensely interested in a cause they usually turn out on election day. High-priced wheat in Arkansas, as elsewhere, is an argument of the gold standard which no amount of campaign sophistry can overcome."

Gen. Grosvenor is supposed to have had a corner on extracting comfort from 'figgers,' but he has a rival in the mathematical genius of the Commercial Advertiser. "A plurality of only about 15,000" is rich. The basis for the assertion is unknown. But the facts of the case are known. The people of Arkansas who raise very little high-priced wheat and have to purchase a great deal of it, after disposing of their cotton at 4 cents, are very complacent over the result of the recent election. They have seen the Populist party practically annihilated and witnessed a 25 per cent decrease in the Republican vote of the state. They have rolled up a majority of 45,000 for the Democratic state ticket despite the lethargy incident to off years. All this has been done on a free silver platform against a straight-out gold standard plank in the Republican state platform. And in November Arkansas will show how "intensely interested in the cause" it is sending to congress six good Democrats who will stand for free silver.—Gazette.

COL. WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

Hon. William Jennings Bryan, seems to be growing in popular favor every day. And there is an almost universal demand for his renomination for the presidency in 1900. The lustre of his name is undimmed by defeat and he is the popular idol of the people today. When, among others, his regiment passed in review before Gen. Lee, at Jacksonville, a few days ago the people went wild and rent the air with their shouts. Wherever he goes he is given an ovation and is proclaimed the chief among men. He is no doubt one of the very ablest, purest and most patriotic men this country ever produced and we don't believe there is any power on earth, that can stay the tide that has turned in his direction and that will sweep him into the presidential chair in 1900. Several states have already declared for him for president and we believe state after state will continue to do so and that when the national convention convenes in 1900 that he will be nominated by acclamation and be elected by the largest popular majority that ever swept over the country.—Morehouse Clarion

Two years ago the Populist had nine members in the house, but at the next session of the general assembly there will be only one member who has heretofore affiliated with the third party, and he will put himself down on the roster as a Democrat. Two years ago the Pops held the balance of power in the organization of the house, and they boasted of that fact. Next year the Democrats will not have to consult any member of the third party. The defeat of Bush in Nevada and Russ in White for the senate was the last straw, and we shall be surprised if the old-line Populists continue under the same name. The dissolution of the People's party is in sight, and unless those who composed it desire to go out of politics they must either affiliate with one of the two old parties or start a side show of their own.

The Republicans hold their own in the house this time, having elected two members, but they lost representation in the senate entirely. It will continue thus for years to come. Arkansas is essentially Democratic, and while there may be occasional defections in the ranks the wanderers always get back home in the end.—L. R. Democrat.

Crippled by Rheumatism.

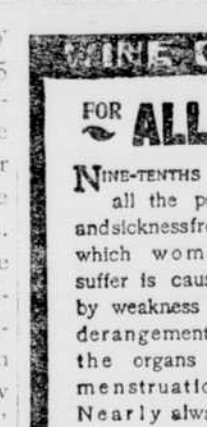

Those who have Rheumatism find themselves growing steadily worse all the while. One reason of this is that the remedies prescribed by the doctors contain mercury and potash, which ultimately intensify the disease by causing the joints to swell and stiffen, producing a severe aching of the bones. S. S. S. has been curing Rheumatism for twenty years—even the worst cases which seemed almost incurable.

Capt. O. E. Hughes, the popular railroad conductor, of Columbia, S. C., had an experience with Rheumatism which convinced him that there is only one cure for that painful disease. He says: "I was a great sufferer from muscular Rheumatism for two years. I could get no permanent relief from any medicine prescribed by my physician. I took about a dozen bottles of your S. S. S., and now I am as well as I ever was in my life. I am sure that your medicine cured me, and I would recommend it to any one suffering from any blood disease."

Everybody knows that Rheumatism is a diseased state of the blood, and only a blood remedy is the only proper treatment, but a remedy containing potash and mercury only aggravates the trouble.

S.S.S. For The Blood

being Purely Vegetable, goes direct to the very cause of the disease and a permanent cure always results. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no potash, mercury or other dangerous minerals. Books mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE

FOR ALL WOMEN

NINE-TENTHS of all the pain and sickness from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement in the organs of menstruation. Nearly always when a woman is not well these organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very seldom sick.

Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It cures all "female troubles." It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with domestic and maternal cares, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefitted by it.

EUPION OIL.

We wish to advise the citizens of Monticello that several of the leading merchants are now handling EUPION OIL, the family safety, which is not only the safest oil in the market but is also most satisfactory, as it throws off no odor and gives a nice, clear, bright light.

OF COURSE we do not guarantee Eupion oil to give satisfaction when old, worn-out wicks and burners are used, but if customers will provide themselves with new burners and wicks and use Eupion oil, we will guarantee a more satisfactory light than they ever had when using any different brand of oil. So please specify Eupion oil when sending your card to be filled.
